I had the honor of being Sis. Peggy pastor @ CHURCH ALIVE, Wagoner, Oklahoma for almost 10 yrs. She came in as Children Church Director. To have been there that long speaks volumes of the kind of person she was. She didn't jump ship when things got hard or if she ran out of supplies. Peggy didn't just read the Bible to the kids. She made the Bible come alive with props, skits, etc. I knew she didn't feel well at times, but she didn't let it stop her. She would work thru her pain. She also loved Prayer Meetings. Til we meet again, Take your rest now, Sis. Peggy. You've earned it! Your labor was not in vain!

Dear Sis, I miss you already but I understand too how done you probably were with your pain and suffering in this life! Just know how much I loved you and I could not have asked for a better sister and friend. So many wonderful memories of us going up with David and Linda. I hate it that I'm the last one left of our family but the way this world is looking it won't be long until we're all together! Can't wait to see you all again.....Love Ronnie

My sweet precious niece I loved you so much. We were more like sisters. 12 months difference in our age. It was so much fun growing up with you. I used to call you my Tulsa friend. So many wonderful memories I have of you will always be with me until we meet again in heaven. Rest in the arms of God. See you soon. Love you
