MAY 13, 1942 - OCT 26, 2019

Susan Green Deeter peacefully passed on October 26, 2019 surrounded by her family. She was born on May 13, 1942 in Monroe, Louisiana to Cecil Green and Gracie Brown. Susan was a very hard, dedicated worker. Throughout the years, she worked at various locations in machine shops and metal work. She had a big heart and giving spirit for people and animals. She never met a stranger and was always ready to strike up a conversation. Susan is preceded in death by her parents Cecil and Gracie Green and her daughter, Treena Elizabeth Moore. She is survived by her daughter DaVonna and husband Henry McGrew; daughter Melody and Jeff Schafer; daughter Susan Elder; son Norman Ross Moore; and daughter Katharine Elizabeth Anne Thomas; 13 grandchildren; 13 great grandchildren; and 3 great great grandchildren. Visitation will take place on Friday, November 1 from 5 pm – 8pm. Services will be at 12:30 pm on Saturday, November 2 at the Floral Haven Chapel. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Susan's honor to a local Humane Society. Hi Mom. Came by to say hello the other day. It was right after the huge thunderstorm Tulsa had. The cemetery was beautiful, a cool morning and it was nice talking to you. I've been in town a few weeks staying with Norman. Trying to figure things out. Wishing you were here. You always knew what to do. I really miss you and love you. I'm so glad you're finally at peace. You truly deserve it. Give my love and hugs to everyone. ❤️

Hi Mama, Just stopped by to say hello and to tell you I love and miss you. I just spent another birthday without you and Jeff. Lindsay and Myles are angels for putting up with me. We all agree that birthdays just aren't as fun without you! You are never out of my thoughts and always in my heart! I love you. ❤️

Hi Mom, missing you a lot these days. I realize more and more just how great of a mom you really were with each passing day and how much I took you for granted. Oh, the things I'd do differently if you and Jeff were alive again. I never knew how selfish I was. I'm so sorry! I love you so much. ❤️

Back again Mama. Katharine, Norman and I visited your grave today. It's been almost 3 years since your passing, yet it feels like just yesterday. I will never get used to you not being here, and the same goes for Jeff. I hope you two are telling funny stories and having great meals with Jesus and meeting all kinds of famous people and seeing our family that is up there. I wish I was there too. Someday, I will be. When it's my time. We all miss and love all of you. Me the most because, well I just do. ❤️ I'd write everyday, but we all know I can't do that. Just know that my heart wants too. Love you most.

Hi Mama, I know you met Jeff at the gate in Heaven four months ago today. I really didn't think expect to lose him so soon after you. I miss him so much, Mom. Please hug him for me and tell him I love him so much!! I wish we had made it to our 25th anniversary, we were so looking forward to that. I love and miss you both so much. ❤️❤️

I'm sorry for your loss. Susan Deeter posted on my sons obituary and it always meant a lot to me that I didn't know her yet she gave her condolences. I lost a baby many years ago and appreciated her kind words. Loss is so difficult and I pray for healing during these times.

Jackie, thank you. I'm so sorry for the loss of your son. My sister passed at 7.5 months old and mom, she wanted to lift other moms up when she could. ❤️

Happy Mother's Day Mom. I went to Tulsa and Norman, John Ross, and I put new flowers on your grave for Mother's Day and for your birthday this week. I stood there looking at your name and cried missing you so much. You were just supposed to be in the hospital a day or two and come home. I need you mom. I miss you so much. I never knew how much I would. The world is horrible to live in now and even more do without you. I pray for Jesus to come and take us all home. Until then, please continue to watch over us. Thank you. Big hug. I'm sorry for everything.

Hi Mama, Believe it or not there are some days I'm glad you're in heaven and not here on earth. Today is one of those days. Joe Biden became the new president of the USA. I watched the election from beginning to end and so did Jeff when he wasn't working. I prayed for the blue states to turn your favorite color RED. He did great from the beginning but he couldn't hold on. He's suing Biden and his for fraudulent ballots so maybe he may end up winning down the road, but for now they have declared Biden our president. My heart hurts for Trump as they have talked so ugly about him. He hasn't taken this sitting down and they've called him horrible names. I pray God will comfort him and his family and all of us that believed in him and to help us keep the faith that God has this and that all will be okay. I miss you so much. You'd be proud of us kids. We all really got into this election more than we ever have before. Maybe because you are gone and we knew how much you wanted Trump to win. Idk, but we did it for you mom. We tried. All 5 of us voted aren't you proud? I am. I know you would have voted also. I love you and wish so much to hear your voice and to hug you again. I want to go back in time and do it all over. I surely would do it different. I wasn't ready for you to go. I still miss my mom. Watch over all of us please. Tell dad and everyone I said hi. ❤️

I can't believe you've been gone a year mom. Time really marches on and waits for no one. I have missed you so very much. Norman and I put flowers on your grave on your anniversary. You aren't forgotten. If your listening you can hear me yakking at you. I love you. ❤️

Mama, Missing you immensely in this big house tonight. I know you are the happiest you've possibly ever been in your life living in heaven, and that thought makes my heart so very happy – that you took the time to make sure we knew about God and heaven so that we could have eternal life. Thank you for being my MOM and for loving me. I love you.

Mom, Baby and FiFi left you your rose for your birthday this year. They have every year right? I hope they continue to leave one for the new owners of the house. I also hope they love the house as much as you did. I miss you so much and would love to talk to you again. You knew me so well. Tell dad hi for me. I love you both.

I miss you every single day mom. There are beautiful yellow jonquils on the kids graves at the house. Took my breath away when I went around back yesterday. I know you would have enjoyed them. I love you so much and I know you are watching over us. Thank you. God is so merciful. Bye for now. I'll be back. ❤️
