Christopher Campbell

APR 18, 1978 - AUG 12, 2019

Christopher Alan Campbell was born on April 18, 1978. Blond hair, brown eyes, he was the most beautiful new born in the hospital. He came into a wonderful loving home with two great older brothers. When he was seven he welcomed home his baby brother Austin. Christopher was always extremely talented. His favorite thing to do was write music, sing and play the guitar. We will miss hearing him sing the most. He also loved to play soccer, BMX, race motor cross and wrestle. He had two beautiful children, Natalie in 2000 and Landon in 2012. They were the light of his life and loved them with all his heart. He met his wife Davidea three years ago and they were married a little over a year. She was the one for him, they were so in love, it's a bond that couldn't be broken. Christopher was a loving husband, father, son and musician who will be in our heart and never be forgotten. Christopher was a wonderful grandfather to Travis Levi. He is preceded in death by his paternal grandmother, Bonnie Jean Lowery; Brothers, Jack A. Campbell Jr. "Rockola" and Michael Alan Campbell; paternal grandfather James Alan Campbell; Step grandfather George C. Lowery Bonnie Jean Lowery. He is survived by parents, Debra and Jack Campbell; daughter Natalie Lynn Campbell; son Landon Alan Campbell; wife Davidea Lynn Campbell; stepson Lucas, Derrick; step daughter Makayla; Grandson Travis Levi; maternal grandmother and grandfather Dolores and Lonnie Holbrook. He will be missed by his many aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, cousins and many friends and loved ones.
