So sorry for your loss. I've known Ashley since elementary school, and we grew up in the same neighborhood. I sort of lost touch with her as we grew older but it was nice to reconnect on Facebook and share in her joy of overcoming her personal battles. It seemed things were really going well for her now and I was rooting for her. Prayers go out to her family in this difficult time.

It's so hard to believe that she's really gone. I regret not being able to make time to come back to Tulsa to visit everyone. I wish I could make the service but I have no one to cover me at work. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this time of grieving... Fly high Ash
