Cynthia Nicodemus posted:

I had the distinct privilege of meeting Larry in Tucson, AZ in the late 70's. He was a very talented, and personable singer and I was a waitress. Everytime I hear a Gordon Lightfoot song I think of him with those thoughtful eyes, and warm smile. Thank you, Larry from all of us that you've touched with your music. See you on the other side, my Friend. May God get the glory and praise! Hallelujah! Cindy Nicodemus Mount Airy, N.C.
