I want to express my deepest condolences to his children, parents, family and friends. Alvin has been especially close in my heart for more than 23 years or so. We reconnected 5 years ago which turned into phone conversations several times a week. There's no words to fully express how much I enjoyed our conversations, and hard to believe not seeing his name on my phone. I looked forward to evenings to talk to him. He was my person! He talked a lot about his kids. He would call with excitement to tell me about Cheyenne, and her amazing accomplishments, his son, daughter in law and new baby. Sorry, I cannot remember all names. I know all unfortunately, my mind is a bit cloudy right now. His 4 year old. He told me many stories of each one of his kids and loved each and every one. I loved that man and we shared wonderful memories back in TN. Years ago. And amazing phone conversations the last 5 years. I have always and will always keep him and our memories in my heart. I love you, Alvin. Forever loved, never forgotten. Love you so much, Sherri Bishop

Our sadness and grief of the loss of our beloved oldest son is unbelievably heartbreaking. There are no words to express our heartache. Alvin, was one of a kind, his actions were a true testament for his love he had for myself, father, brother and sister. Alvin, was strong willed and compassionate in many areas. Alvin enjoyed life, his children, friends, all family, and was dedicated employee to his employer. You'll be in our hearts and soul until we meet again. We love you son!
