Samuel Isaiah Mangold

MAR 2, 2019 - MAR 4, 2019

Jesus, the Giver of Life, blessed us with a son, Samuel Isaiah, who I carried in me for eight months. Samuel was delivered into this world on March 2 and he was beautiful. His tiny hand squeezed my fingers and he always woke when I came near and spoke to him. He would squint at me and then close his eyes and settle back to sleep with his hand in mine. He passed from this world March 4 because his lungs were not developed enough to sustain life. During his brief earth life both inside and outside the womb he impacted many people. I do not have words to say how much I love him and I thank God for the brief time I had to hold him and sing to him and kiss him before he went to be with God.
