Katie posted:

I'm so sorry to see your family's loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I don't know your family personally, but I had to stop and read about this sweet beautiful little boy. Death is very difficult, especially when it seems like to comes too soon. Psalms 34/18 assures us that God is close to the broken-hearted, and is eager to comfort. As I've lost close ones, it has truly helped to remember the Bible's promise at Revelation 21/3,4 that soon He will remove death forever and alleviate your sadness. I hope you find these as comforting as I have.
