I am in shock to be writing this....My sincerest condolences go out to your family and closest friends. You were always such a sweet person to work with and my favorite memory of you was that you would always make sure the ladies in the office got a single rose from you on Valentine's Day. You were the best!

Loved Zac. Just a great guy. Too many things to mention but one I'd like to in particular. I did business with him and one time my car was over heating and he saw it when I pulled in. He ran over, took my keys before I could say anything, ran it back to service and within 10-15 minutes had it fixed by one of his service guys that replaced a hose and added some anti freeze. I was almost 150 miles from home and he wouldn't take any money. I know it wasn't free and I'm quite sure, he paid for it himself.

I wouldn't have made it through college without Zac. We partnered up in every business class we had and our capstone Finance class had the two of us meeting and going over our presentations 2 to 3 days a week. He was fun to be around and had a sharp mind. Rest in Peace Zac.
