Lorri and I, along with Lorene wish to extend our condolences to your family. It was truly an honor to have met Janette and to have gotten to visit with her over the last few months at Autumn Leaves. I will always remember the smile that she had and the way that she called each of us "hon" as well as for her concern for Lorene. I am glad that they got to know each other...even if it was just for a few months. Blessings to all of you, Lorri and David Bohnert
