I have so many nice memories of you. Some of my favorite are of the times we visited in Colorado. I loved your home and all the chatter and activity of your family. You have always been a strong woman. One of the strongest I have known. I have admired your strength, integrity and loving ways you have always shown.I know there was quite a reunion in heaven when you arrived to find our loved ones that have already passed. You are rejoicing in the glory of our Lord being whole and at your best. I love you always, Molly!
