Helen you will be missed . I loved your laugh and cheeky humor ! You were a wonderful cook , Gardner and seamstress . It seemed you could turn your hand to anything. You were part of my American family for so many years and I always enjoyed my visits with you , including our last one together to celebrate your 90th Birthday. I will for ever remember your joy in wearing your Boa and seeing your family at church and having your family at your home to celebrate with cake and flowers. You knew I loved you and my family in England loved you too and for that I am truly grateful for . Until we meet again xx
