

Velma Mae Moore

Scan to Visit

FLORAL HAVEN

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 4

Velma Mae Moore

Velma Mae Lawrence Moore Born October 29, 1939 in Bigflatt, Arkansas A loving sister, wife, mother, and grandmother She enjoyed cooking on the holidays making different foods and sharing with her friends. Moms favorite food was knotty pine BBQ, homemade macaroni salad, sweet potato's, ramen noodles, and jalapeno cheetos. She enjoyed watching Bob Ross painting, This old house, travel channel, cooking shows, and Americas got talent. Velma enjoyed doing family fishing trips in the big rig seeing the country and taking pictures. She liked collecting holiday clocks, holiday barbies and glass angels. She loved apricot fried pies and talking on the phone with family and close friends. Velma loved a family get together with her brothers and family. They would sing and play the guitars, and have a good time. She worked hard and long hours at the family owned Security Company. Velma worked at The City of Tulsa for 25 years as a Crossing Guard at Columbia Elementary School. She saw many kids come and go. She would get visits from some kids that had moved on and they would stop and give her a hug. Velma is survived by her husband, James Moore; two sons, Dennis and Joey; five grandchildren and four great grandchildren, Eddie Moore, Jessica Moore, Brandon Moore,

Tribute Wall

Velma Mae Moore

Delos Tillotson posted:

Velma you will be so missed. Delos has told me so many stories about you and your kind heart. Thoughts and prayers go out to your family. Delos Tillotson and family

February 5 at 4:13 AM

Garry Gammill posted:

To the family of Velma Moore please accept my deepest condolences for your family's loss. May you be comforted by the outpouring of love surrounding you.

February 4 at 3:59 PM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Velma by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

FLORAL HAVEN