Dear Terri and Family, Found the Obituary when I heard the news. I wanted to tell you how sorry I am for your loss. Bob was the kindest, gentlest, most loving person. I loved being around him. He was the best man at my Wedding to Richard. He was Richard's best friend. We visited his home several times, and he was a fun host. When he came to visit Richard, he was a gift of love sent at the right time directly from the angels of heaven. He blessed us all with the eulogy for Richard which was loving and caring, welcoming him home to Christ. I know that heaven is celebrating Robert in their arms. I am praying for you all as you come to a new normal because of his loss. Love You all, Julie McGrath
