My Dear Aunt Ginny, I will miss you always. You are the first person who taught me the real meanings of love and kindness. You never said much with words, but spoke volumes in everything you did! Your mission here on earth was simple and special, to teach us all to look within others and love the person we saw inside. I love you and I appreciate all that you taught me! I am so happy to know you are dancing with Jesus our savior and conversating with God our father in your perfect heavenly body. I know he is more proud of you than I am and he is holding you tight tonight and for eternity. Rest well Aunt Ginny. See you when I get there, though I may not recognize you in your heavenly body, so you may have to come find me!
