You taught me so much over the years working together, Buddy...You played a major role in helping me become the father, husband and man that I am today. There isn't a day that goes by that something throughout the day will bring a memory of your teachings and mentorship you so selflessly provided me with daily and without hesitation. It's taken this many years Buddy to smile and giggle when those thoughts and memories come flooding in...the heartache has finally started being overshadowed with smiles and laughter. It's how you would want me to remember you is with laughter and never with sadness. Trying my hardest and always will, I pinky swear. RIP my friend... thank you BuddyTigger
