Wanda Plummer

SEP 16, 1929 - AUG 25, 2017

Wanda Ladina Plummer, beloved wife, mother, and friend, passed away Friday August 25, 2017. Wanda was born to Paul and Clynthia Winter in Carmi, Illinois. After graduating from High School, she and her best friend Mary Lee moved to Evansville, Indiana, where they worked in an aircraft manufacturing plant during WWII. She moved to Tulsa, Oklahoma in 1948 where she worked for Safeway in the payroll department until she took early retirement so she could work with her husband Don in his electrical business. She is survived by her husband Don of the home, her two sons Lonnie and Joey, his wife Sandy, their two sons Shane and Michael and their wives Stacey and Chelsea, and great grandchildren Jayden and August. A special thank you to her best friends Billy and Jeri Parker who were with her until the very end. Visitation will be held at Floral Haven Funeral Home on Tuesday, August 29 from 5 pm – 8 pm. Services will be held at Floral Haven Chapel on Wednesday, August 30 at 10 am.
