Tonnie Caroline Pahsetopah

JAN 7, 1939 - JUN 28, 2017

Tonnie Caroline Pahsetopah was born on January 7, 1939 at Morningside Hospital in Tulsa, OK to Albert S. Choate and Helen (James) Choate. She passed away on Wednesday, June 28, 2017 at home surrounded by loved ones. Tonnie was very talented. She was an artist, she did beadwork, she made Native American Dolls and many other art projects. Tonnie worked at McDonnell Douglas for several years and she was a hairdresser as well. She enjoyed ballroom dancing with her husband, Loren Pahsetopah as well as camping, fishing, long rides through Mohawk Park and just about any other type of activity that they could do together. They loved spending time together (they were inseparable). Tonnie was preceded in death by her parents; four children, Lionel Worthington, Tonya Worthington, Beaver Smith and an infant Lisa Howard. She was also preceded by her sister, Jodie Bridges. Tonnie leaves behind her husband, Loren Pahsetopah, a brother, Tolly Choate and a son, Tully Smith, as well as numerous stepchildren, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Funeral Mass will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, July 1, 2017 at the Church of Saint Benedict in Broken Arrow.
