Bro. Max was a Pastor's "Pastor". One of the most kindest, gentle men of God one could ever hope to meet. He touched hundreds of lives during his ministry and will definitely be missed. He led his church as no one else could, through hard times and good. Shoes that will impossible to fill. Our time with Bro. Max and Colleen is priceless and leaves us with the utmost fondest memories. We loved him and Colleen dearly, and sorely miss them both. His church will definitely suffer this tremendous loss, but with the help of the Lord they will get through this trying time.
