Loving, kind and creative... the type of person who made a positive impact on those around him just by being himself. He will be missed by everyone who knew him. To Angie, Brian, Daniel and all, please accept my deepest sympathy, loving thoughts and meaningful prayers. Dear Lord, please accept young Kyle in heaven so that You can continue to experience his love for You. He left us early to be with You in eternity. Please accept his gift. Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen. Hail Mary, full of grace. Our Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

How I will always remember family outings and our parents' hopes of a Beatie-Chavez wedding. Daniel in my age-range, Kyle the one I crushed on, and the legitimate fear of a rhyming-name nightmare: Katie Beatie!

I had the privilege of watching Kyle grow through his youngest years at Jarman Elementary as his principal. Angie and Brian were so supportive and attended all school events for their boys. Angie was ever present and the love she had for her boys was quite evident. Kyle was somewhat quiet, but had many friends and was easy to like. He was a good student, never in trouble, and enjoyed so many activities we did. It always seemed he had people around him and thrived on being involved. His kindness was evident. I have no doubt that Jesus saw his servant heart and he is being rewarded in his heavenly home. He was taken too soon but Kyle will not be forgotten and prayers will continue as hearts are healing. May God Bless Angie, Brian, Daniel, and extended family and friends. Patti Pitcock

I am just heart broken over the death of Kyle. I watched him grow up with my son, coached him in soccer and he always had a smile on his face and called me Mr. G, which I will never forget. My deepest sympathy to Angie, Brian and Daniel and the rest of his extended family. May God bring you peace and comfort to your hearts.
