Connie Lea Allbritton

MAY 30, 1956 - MAR 13, 2017

Allbritton, Connie Lea (Boron) 1956 – 2017 A beloved wife to one and a mother to all she met, moved into her Heavenly mansion early Monday morning. Connie was loved by all and lived for her children, John, Jerrad and Emily (Elam). She is also survived by brother Dennis, sister in law Debbie, spouse Wesley and countless others who will never forget their Nonnie. A blessing to the world her memory will be cherished by so many. Wednesday, March 15 from 5 to 8 PM, there will be a public viewing alongside immediate family at floral Haven, 6500 S. 129th E. Avenue, Broken Arrow Oklahoma 74012. Thursday, March 16 from 2 to 4 PM, join us at First Church of Owasso, 10100 N. Garnet Rd., Owasso, OK 74055 for a “celebration of Connie” in which we share our memories and love through food and fellowship. Per Connie’s wishes this is not a funeral but instead a party. So please keep the black attire to a minimum and bring your favorite pot luck dish and memory to share. In lieu of flowers the family has asked that donations be made in Connie’s name to DVIS, a charity she held near and dear to her heart. For further information on ways to do this please visit <http://dvis.org/donate/>

Wesley, John, Jerrad and Emily we were sadden to hear the news. We have many fond memories of Connie that we shared. Thinking of the time we were at Wildwood brings a smile to my face. We laughed so much, we cried. Connie was kind and thoughtful to Honey and Rick. She will always be in our hearts. Good memories, laughs, and how much she loved the Lord and her family. We are thinking of all you . Love, Tonia & Ron 43 years ago, just after lunch I heard a knock on my door I was greeted with, "Hi, Neighbor. My name is Connie." I invited her in, and we talked and laughed until almost four. Connie came into my house that day, And found a place in my heart and my life. Thank goodness for that knock on the door, Because she will have that place for ever more. I know Connie is with God, now The pain she will no longer have to bear But as I go about my day, missing her I'm constantly wiping away a tear. Connie and I had a good friendship We shared lots of laughs and lots of tears We counseled each other always with love and no judgement A solid friendship that lasted 43 years. I'm left here to carry on without her It won't be the same as before But I know Connie will be there waiting with a hug When I knock on Heaven's door. Rest in Peace, my dear friend Thanks for all the memories I can go back and explore Thanks for 43 years of love and the friendship Thanks for that knock on the door.
