He loved his family, storytelling and he could tell some good ones. He loved serving the Lord at Faith Baptist Church. I will always remember his love for singing with Ms. Sue (Sheltered in the Arms of God) and those crazy maracas. He's sing with the heavenly choir now. See you soon Brother Fred.

He was my favorite part of going to Birmingham at Christmas time. He always pulled quarters from my ear, lol. He also gave me my very first baseball mitt. He is sorely missed. Rest In Peace, uncle Fred! I love you!
