To family and friends of Barbara, My sister and I always had to share a bedroom while growing up, so we had our share of fun and getting into trouble! I was the young one,so she was the boss. I always looked up to her as my big sister. After Barbara graduated high school, she went her way and we lost our close relationship. My love, support and best thoughts have always been with you – my one and only sister. Rest in peace, Love, Susan
