Orlin, sorry for the loss of your dad. It was admirable of you to hang out with him in his last years. Twice when we had lunch together recently, he was there with you. 1Cor.2:9 Terry Collins

I first met Mr. Emmons, when my Mom introduced me to him when he picked her up to go to work. Mother rode to work with Wade for many years and she always told me that he was one of the nicest men she had ever met. Mr. Emmons was always very humble and down to earth. I'm glad that Orlin got to be with his Dad alot and was able to take good care of him. It's so sad to loose your parent's, but they have gone to a better place. Not many men like Mr. Emmons today. Mr. Emmons you will be missed !!!
