I have lots of nice memories of Aunt Glayds. When we first moved to Tulsa, she offered to let us use her washer and dryer instead of going to the laundromat. She taught me how to correctly fold a bath towel. I think of her every time I fold towels. Sylvia Helterbrand

Gladys and I were great buds. I was fortunate to talk with her the first week in Jan. We shared the first ISO office to open Tulsa. Lots of love from her for a lot of years. Have a great meeting up there and sign in for me and we will share some more. Retha Vargas,

Glayds always had a smile and a kind word to share at Sunday School and Church at St. Andrews UMC in Claremore. We have only known her for the last 5 years but she was always upbeat and encouraging even when she wasn't feeling well. She loved Jesus, her family, and her Church family. Glayds always made us feel that we were loved and praised God for all He had done for her. We will miss her very much, but we know she is walking and serving God in Heaven 🙏 We send our prayers to her sweet family. Timothy and Linda Heemstra

I have many memories of my Aunt Glayds, but one that always sticks out is the day Elvis died. I was with her on that day and she was DEVASTATED! My heart is going out to you Wes & Cheryl. Lori Wiesner
