Mr. Rigney left us with many fond memories. He was an amazing, selfless man that did so much for my family and I. He taught us so many things that to this day we use in our everyday lives. I (Ambar) can honestly say that he was the foundation of the work and moral ethics I hold today and for that I will be forever grateful. Words cannot describe the impact that this incredible man had on my family and I. He has left us physically but we will carry him in our hearts always.With so much love,Nena, Oscar, Marilu, Ambar & Noah

We have many happy memories of Floyd as we all grew from children into adults & then grew older together. Floyd helped many young relatives, including us, get better jobs & starts as adults. He was a great inspiration of hard work leads to success as a person & in business. He will be greatly missed. Marie & Jack
