I will never forget David's kindness and consideration to me. A group of 6, Dave and Sondra included, were on a jungle trek that would end in the rafting through caves. The jungle hike was strenuous since we had to carry our giant tubes. I was in a weakened condition since I had recently undergone chemotherapy. David, carried my tube for me and was such a nice guy. Sometimes he is onery, but he was always a gentleman and friend. He will be missed by many.
