I also had the pleasure of doing Arlene's hair, Tuesday and Saturday, 10:30, for about 10 years while she was in Tulsa. I'm glad she has found peace and is with John, as she was looking forward to.

Well I am not quite sure who suggested me to Arlene. Someone she had been in contact with at Ash street place. Needless to say I get a phone call. I was seeing Arlene once a week for hair appointments. We then became friends. I sure have missed her since she had moved back home. I am thankful I did have my time with her. My dear Arlene.
