My condolences to the family. I hope you find comfort in the memories and the hope for the future. John 5:28,29 promises "do not be amazed at this for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out" what a glorious day that will be to see our dear love ones again. With deep respect, spp

Amy was a very loved and respected co-worker here at Level 3. I started on the very same day with Amy almost three years ago. In the past few months, she really opened up a lot and allowed us to love her for the person she was. I feel very blessed to have known her. Amy never failed to make her teammates laugh. We connected because we were both very interested in writing and literature, and often she would call me over to her desk to scoff at emails she received that exhibited poor grammar. She always respected me even though I am one of the youngest members of our team. She asked me questions, gave me advice, and we learned together. She had the most colorful and interesting desk in the entire department. Her love of Nascar, plants, and brightly colored clothing were daily talking points. She is very sincerely and desperately missed. Thank you, Amy, for being a part of our lives here at Level 3.-Rachel
