Susie's cats were some of the luckiest pets in the world. She always took great care of them and in return she always had a feline friend wherever she went.

Dear Walden family, Please accept my condolence and deep regrets for your loss for this enemy death is our worse enemy and brings nothing but much pain and grief as it did when it took my entire family but I found help and I'd like to share that with you. I found comfort and hope in what Jehovah Gods word the Bible says at John5:28,29 for there Jesus says we'll see our love ones again when he brings them back in the resurrection here on earth. Also Isaiah25:8 states that this enemy death will be swallowed up forever. I also found help at jw.org\(search:comfort\)) and all this is what helps me cope with my great loss and get through each day. I truly hope this will help you also in some way for this is my purpose in sharing this with you and I do hope you'll let me know. Please feel free to at gloriamosley@hotmail.com and please know I do share your grief and hope to hear from you. Sincerely, GMosley

So sorry to hear of your Mother's passing away, Aunt Chris told me, yesterday. I was glad to have met your Mother. I remember her when our family visited in my teenage years as My sweet Aunt Sue who was a really neat and beautiful lady, who was super in Love & Loyal with her cool sons and my Uncle James and the family dachshund. The way she spoke and carried herself made me want to be a better me. When she spoke of her job it made me want to be like that at a job, to Love working with enthusiasm and dedication. As a young adult, I visited with her and shared my faith, she was really nice and warmly welcomed me. The last time I had seen her I was amazed at how youthful & healthy she remained in her elder years , my Mother and I had stopped by for a visit they reminisced over family and she shared how proud her sons and their families had made her. She gave me some peaches she had ripened in a brown paper sack, the best I've ever tasted. Your Mother will be fondly remembered. Please know our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time. With warm & heartfelt sympathy, Kristi (Hudson) Soap.

I will miss my Aunt Sue very much. She has taught me many things in life. She is joining her sisters in Heaven whom have gone before her, Thelma, Katy, and one brother Eddie. Oh what a time they are having. Will love you and miss you forever. From Wanda Ketcherside.
