Mack B. Magruder

JUN 14, 1948 - FEB 19, 2016

Mack Benny MagruderMack Benny Magruder surrounded by his family went to be with his Heavenly Father on February19th, 2016. Mack Benny Magruder was born June 14th, 1948 in Shawnee, OK to EB & Irene Magruder. Mack had 3 loving older sisters, Ann, Peggy, & Janice. Being the only boy and youngest of the siblings, Mack was adored and spoiled by the family. Mack and the family moved to Tulsa where Mack finished high school at East Central, then went on to attend Northeastern State University. After settling in Tulsa, Mack met Janis Magruder, the Love of his life. Shortly there after, Mack and Janis married on September 25th, 1971. Mack and Janis shared 44 years of happiness. Mack and Janis were blessed with two children, Chad Magruder and Shelley Patterson. Chad and Shelley both reside in the Tulsa area and are happily married to Lauren Magruder and Marc Patterson. Between the two families, Mack was blessed with 9 loving grandchildren who referred to Mack as their PA-PA! – Dria, Zac, Paige, Morgan, Brayson, Brielle, Brenlee, Britan, and Little Baby Max. Mack also loved his puppies and daily companions, Harley and Buddy. Funeral Service will be 11:00 AM, Tuesday, February 23rd, Floral Haven Rose Chapel, Broken Arrow, OK

We were so sad to hear about the passing of Mac, we have always enjoyed the few times we all got together, his love for his family, and dog's, the water, camping and traveling with Janice. I am sure there are so many wonderful memories for you all to look back on. Wish we could have been there to share your day today. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Love to you all, Joan & Butch Smith

I can think of Mack when he would attend with Janic our Care Group meeting and I could tell he was hurting many times but he would still attend. To me that said a lot about Mack, he was there in spite of the pain. Because of his faith Mack is now in the hands of the very one that has removed all that pain. God Bless this family as they struggle with the loss of our dear friend.
