Joe was a man of honesty, courage and faith, along with a unshakable set of ideals. During his last day's he showed how you can pass with dignity, strength and humor, while still caring for the people around him. Many times he graciously gave be sound advice and a calming voice during tough times. Although I will miss terribly the friend I had almost my entire life, I feel comfort in knowing Joe is no longer sick and in pain. He is in Heaven casting cheerful eyes upon us. Our condolences to all of Joe's wonderful Family. Love You, Kelly & Shelby
