Brent and I met back in 2001 in Houston. Both he and I were in sales just getting started. My brother in law bet Brent he couldn't make sales going door to door. Ha not the case, he and I went out that Sunday and made 4 sales because he was so good. I miss you already BJ. You were a good friend and I will always appreciate and love you.

My name is Buddy Bass. I did not know until his girlfriend text me tonight. I met Brent almost 11 years ago at my parents Restaurant in Houston. We have great memories together when he was down here in Houston. I just want to say a prayer to his family. I also got a chance to meet his younger brother when he was visiting Brent. God bless his family. I will truly miss him.
