I remember the day my son came home covered in sheet rock dust because Randy had roiled him around wrestling. That changed as Tyler got older. Randy taught him how to pitch a baseball as well as many other things. He was a great friend to my husband. You'll be missed.

My heart goes out to my sister and nephew and families for their loss. Randy was truly an individual who was devoted to his wife and child. His love for them goes beyond what anyone could imagine as well as his love for our devine Savior. I will surley miss my brother-in-law Randy. He was always fun to be around. He had such great talent in so many areas. I will definately miss him cooking up his famous turkeys and ham during the holidays. God Bless you Carolyn and Robert.All my loveBoogie
