Daisy Aileen Wolfenbarger, 77, of Tulsa, passed away June 9, 2015. She was born November 19, 1937 in Myron, Arkansas. She was recently diagnosed with hypotrophic obstructive cardiomyopathy. After a short, but valiant fight, she died from complications of the disease. Daisy graduated from Violet Hill High School in 1955 and shortly after moved to Tahlequah, OK. She and Richard were set up on a blind date, but they met each other earlier in the day and quickly realized they were each others dates! They married October 13, 1956 in Melbourne, AR. Their son, Rick, was born the following year. Daisy enjoyed maintaining the home and friends and family were always welcome. She enjoyed gardening, cooking, Days of Our Lives, and the OSU Cowboys. She is survived by husband of 58 years, Richard, son Rick and wife Darlene of Oklahoma City, granddaughters Tara and Renee of Oklahoma City, sister Linda and husband Glenn Bailey of Ash Flat, AR, numerous nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends. Daisy was preceded in death by her parents, Don and Nellie McGuire. Visitation will be Sunday, June 14th from 2-6pm. Funeral Services will be Monday, June 15th at 12:30pm. Both at Floral Haven in Broken Arrow. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the American Heart Association.

Paul and I met Daisy and Richard, by chance, several years ago at Western Country Diner and, oh, what a blessing that meeting turned out to be. We soon discovered that we had so many things in common it was almost unreal. Whether at the "Diner", Village Inn, or our individual homes, we always had a great time and managed to always have great hearty laughs. We will forever miss Daisy's smile, warmth, and generosity, but forever grateful to have so many wonderful memories. Paula and Paul Hackler

My heart is broken. I do not know what I will do without my second mom, my Aunt Daisy. She always encouraged me, comforted me, challenged me and most of all showed me such love. She called me her "other kid" and I was happy to accept that title. She was so present in my children and grandchildren's lives they thought of her like a grandma and great-grandma. My life and my heart will always have a space only she can fill. I will love and miss her forever. ❤️

Daisy is the only sibling of my dear sister-in-law, Linda, and I grieve for Linda, Richard and all the family members. I understand about losing a member of a close and loving family; it leaves a void that can't be filled. Eventually, the memories of the recent past of pain and suffering give way to memories of a life well lived. Roy and I spent a few days in Branson a few years ago with Glenn and Linda, Daisy and Richard and others. It was a delightful time and was the most time I had ever spent with Daisy. We shopped, did the shows, ate (a lot), etc. It was a fun time and that is how I will remember Daisy. Prayers and Hugs to all, Zo Bailey
