I'm so sorry to here about Janet. I remember in Jr High School, Janet and I met, then we found out we are cousins, thought it was such a cool thing to go to school with family. Praying for her family. Love always, Debi (Ratliff) Edwards

I am so saddened by Janet's unexpected death. I have known her all my life and have had the honor to live right next door to her son, Chris and his husband for the last 9 years in Dallas. She raised a wonderful, intelligent, beautiful son in Chris and he will miss his mother forever. I know she was a Christian and that we will all see her again in Heaven. Janet, you will be missed.
