Known John and Sharon for 50 years, they were seniors at Will Rogers and I a sophomore. Before I really got to know him he shipped out overseas. Saw him and visited with him in Nov. 2013. Good man, see you later John.

First time I saw my brother he was 4yo and I was 8 1/2. Daddy and Juanita came to visit with me at my grandparnets (Dillman) in Ark. Neeta was a babe in arms. John and I played all day. Goodbye little brother.

Look at you so handsome in your uniform! Terry and I met you and Sharon when we lived across the street from each other. Through the years Terry and I moved to Houston, Atlanta, Chicago and finally back to Oklahoma. We never lost touch and remained the best of friends for over 40 years. Such good times we had—played cards and Mille Borne like maniacs till all hours of the night, meet up in Dallas and take the kids to Six Flags, built a garden together. I'll miss you forever. Susan
