I believe God blessed me with a very special person in my life as my step Dad!. A true giver and compassionate. Always willing to help others, he loved to take care of people and to just 'talk about things'. A humorous story, he would ask me to bring ketchup and barbecue sauce up to the nursing home cause the food needed flavoring, I took it up to him for about a month, come to find out he had a 'friend' in the nursing home that didn't have family that would visit him and he just wanted to be nice to the fellow. Then there was the hard candy he always needed ?? he would give that out to everyone just to make them happy. One of the 'real' cowboys that had a heart made of gold. I sure did love him! An especially good man to my Mom.
