It was such a pleasure working with you. I took for granted that after my vacation I would see you when I returned to work. I will miss you zooming past me leaving work each night in your vehicle that I called White Lightning. Rest well Felisha and know that you will be missed.

You were an angel of love when you introduced Bill to me. An angel in song at our wedding and I treasure all the memories we made as roommates. My friend, I am sure the Lord, your mom and grandmother are not letting that beautiful voice go to waste in heaven. We love and miss you!

The righteous pass away; the godly often die before their time.....No one seems to understand that God is protecting them from the evil to come. For the godly who die will rest in peace. Isaiah 57: 1,2... NIV May the Lord be your comfort and strength—may His love sustain you and give you hope for the future..I can still hear my Daddy singing "By an by, when the morning comes, When all the saints of God are gathered home....We will understand it better by and by." Look for me, for I will be there too. Nancy Stroud Roberts.
