I have been blessed to know and care for Don & Norma it's very challenging now to not cry while typing this I will pray this makes sense ~ I have the wonderful memories of their love towards each other. I can hear Norma's beautiful giggle and laughter it will be forever in my heart. Wow, and Don singing songs to his beloved. These photos are from Inverness Village they managed to both be together Don was in the next room from Norma receiving rehabilitation services the rooms where not able to house two beds I told them they where neighbors.

I was honored to visit dear Norma as she was making her transition from this life to eternity. Praise God she was mentally stable and Beverly and Daniel were able to release her into the loving arms of our Heavenly Father. Go forth in Peace dear Beverly. You have been through unspeakable loss these past months and now it is time to grieve and mourn. Norma prayed for me many, many times and I know she had a deep and abiding faith in our Father. Now she sits at His right hand with all the company of saints and those who went before her. She is still your strength and I know she is watching over you and Daniel. You were very blessed to have her as your precious Mother.-

Dear Mrs. Hartman, You were such a great mom and wife. How do I know? I look at the beautiful friend I have had in Beverly. I heard you speak of your husband and how much he meant to you. You invested well and always gave your best. Thank you for the loving gifts you imparted by sharing your life with us.

I've enjoyed getting reacquainted with Norma on face book through Beverly. Please dab some makeup on my face and fix my hair in a cute style, so I could look as good as Norma in the latter years of life. I can't imitate that dazzling smile though. I am still so moved by the pic of Daniel laying with his grandma, holding her hand, both asleep. Norma was thoroughly loved.

Norma Jean was one of my cousins I didn't know too well but she was always so sweet to me and because of her I know a lot about my mother. She shared many memories of her with me every time I saw her. I always remember what an awesome and devoted daughter she was to Aunt Pearl. Blessings and Comfort to you Beverly.Patti McCormick Glover
