Kathryn Elizabeth Cage

AUG 24, 1984 - FEB 3, 2015

Kathryn Elizabeth Cage, “Katie”, was a beautiful person both inside and out. Katie was more caring and thoughtful than any person I have ever known. Katie never knew a stranger and wanted to be everyone’s friend. Not only did she love people, but she loved all animals. Katie even paid for her dog, Mai Hana, to have knee surgery when most people would have given up. Katie’s pets were family to her. She would even greet them and say goodbye to them like any other family member. Katie also loved to travel. She has been to most of the states including Alaska and Hawaii. She went to Mexico, Jamaica, and most recently Italy. Katie loved every minute of the Italy trip. Despite so many hardships, Katie bounced back to be the light for her family and friends. Katie was just like one of those re-lightable birthday candles. Katie is survived by her mother, father, and sister, Christy, Jim, and Brooke Cage, her brother Tim Bertalot, her Grandmother Peggy Ekart, and her beloved dog, Pookie. Services will be held at Floral Haven Funeral Home Chapel of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma on Saturday, February 7, 2015 at 3:00 pm.

Katie brought such joy to SoonerStart each and every day. I now know why my daughter thoroughly enjoyed meeting Katie for lunch almost daily during their days together at TCC. She shared such a vibrancy with everyone she met.

In the few months since Katie came to work at Sooner Start, she has been a consistent ray of sunshine! Always a smile for everyone, a chirpy and helpful response to any question, and an energetic sweet spirit. She was a talented baker and shared this gift with our staff often. What an empty place she leaves

My heart aches. A beautiful, precious light has gone out, only to brighten the night sky with a new, magnificently brilliant star touched by God. Words cannot ease the pain. Only memories and thoughts of Katie being a whisper away can do that, and only in the fullness of time as we walk with the unspeakable pain and grief of losing beautiful Katie.
