Lucille N. Laughlin

FEB 29, 1924 - JAN 28, 2015

Lucille N. Laughlin was born on leap year day, February 29, 1924 in Paden, OK to Delbert Amos and Ethel (Smalley) Whetstone. She and her five siblings were raised in Oklahoma by her father who was a deputy and farmer and her very talented Godly mother during their early years. Lucille was referred to as “Babe,” a nickname she loved. Lucille attended high school near Stroud and later moved with her husband, Jack Laughlin, to California where their first and only child, Daniel, was born. She and Jack lived in various cities in southern CA for many years until she returned to Oklahoma as a widow to be near her son and his family in 2000. She remained in Oklahoma until her death on January 28, 2015. Lucille had a great love for God and family. She loved to sing, belting out songs like Vestal Goodman for anyone who requested a hymn. Her favorite secular song was Kenny Rogers, “You picked a fine time to leave me, Lucille.” Lucille was always the life of the party, a fantastic cook and hostess who made everyone feel like they were her very favorite person in the whole world. Her father, Delbert Whetstone; mother, Ethel Smalley Whetstone; her oldest brother, Paul Whetstone; her husband, Jack Laughlin; and granddaughter, Debra Lynn preceded her in death. She is survived by her brothers, Delbert and Jack Whetstone; her sisters, Nova Welter and Marie Gonzales, her son, Daniel Laughlin her grandchildren, Kimberly Buck, Jonathan Laughlin, and Amie Robl; her great grandchildren. Funeral service to be held 12:30 pm Tuesday, February 3, 2015 at the Floral Haven Funeral Home Chapel.

We have many special memories of our precious Aunt LuLu! Most of these memories depict Lulu's sense of humor and wit. Like the time she spoke into the microphone on our keepsake Wedding video. She was giving us a special tribute with love and at the end of her beautiful comments, she said, "...Congratulations Jerry and what's her name?!" Thankfully, Nancy was not offended and remembers how funny and sweet she can be. Another funny memory was when she enjoyed filling up on our soup one day knowing very well that our dinner we were preparing to serve her and the family would be disastrous! Little had we known that cooking one of our roosters would prove tasty but difficult to chew! She just politely decline the feast before her, saying, that the soup had filled her up. Later that evening we learned the fact about cooking rooster over hens was not the best choice meal! We will truly miss our Aunt Lulu's good sense of humor and her joy she has brought to our lives. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all, Jerry, Nancy and Matt Welter
