Missing you dad. Christmas is close – I know this is silly – wish you were here to see the babies – they would have loved you – we are trying to keep your memory alive, you would be proud. Love you.

Jim and I connected through our mutual love of genealogy. My mother is an Allen through George Washington Allen, brother of James Monroe Allen, Jim's ancestor. I really enjoyed our e-mails and we even talked on the phone a few times. My heart goes out to your family at the loss of Jimmie. My husband and I lost our 30-year-old daughter, Megan, in 2007. I feel your pain. God's blessings and His Peace that surpasses all understanding to you and yours. Sincerely, Debbie Christ St. Louis, Mo
