Sure love you John and I already miss you so. These last few years have been trying, sad, happy, victorious and sometimes quite funny. I choose to remember the happiest times. I prayed for you daily to keep in touch with your God and your family. Your Sis, ShirleneYou told me during last three years that you sure learned a lot about me. Hmmm

Uncle John,Getting to spend some time with you the last few years brought back some great memories of camping and fishing at Tenkiller and Greenleaf, along with games as simple as coffee lid / broomstick baseball in Granny and Grandpa's back yard. And many other memories with You, Dorothy, Steve, Vickie and Bruce to numerous to mention. May God bring healing, strength and a peace that only he can give to the family in this time of loss.Paul Oman

Uncle John. You will be missed around our kitchen table. We will always think of you when we fry fish or have a big family get together. These last 3 years have been a blessing for us as we got to know you again. Thank you for your kind and loving nature towards me and chuck and our grandchildren. Tammie
