My deepest condolences to the entire Moody Clan – I remember the many times being in the presence of COL Moody. I was one of the fortunate ones to have been there in the early days of the 172d Support Group. COL Moody and my father were together for a long time. My prayers are with you all. LTC(Ret) Larry E. Deepest sympathy to the Moody family – I remember your Dad, Pam, as the most patient man and caring father – especially during all the times we would hang out in your house during high school. Prayers are with you and your family. Judy McGinley
