It was such a pleasure having Bob in our lives. A kind, gentle man with a warm heart and a smile on his face. My mom got lucky twice, and so did we. May you now rest in peace. Love, Coleen Stephenson

What wonderful memories we have of the past 36 years of being Bob's neighbors. Bob was a joy to be around and always brighten our day on seeing him. When we lose a loved one here on earth, we gain an angel in heaven that watches over us. May you take comfort in knowing that you have an angel to watch over you. Our most sincere condolences. Words can not express the sadness felt by my family and I for the loss of Bob. He was a gentleman's gentleman, and one of the kindness person I have ever met. Bob was always trying to help with whatever someone else was doing and always had a smile ready when you would see him. Bob was a gift and an angel sent from heaven to those of us who had the privilege to meet him. Bob, you will be missed dearly, God has bigger plans for you no doubt. Our deepest and most sincere condolences to the Kennedy Family and the countless friends who were proud to be a friend of Bob Kennedy's. — Love & Prayers — Chris Kelly
