This Man was a good friend to me at a time when I hardly had any. He came to see me and shared the love of Jesus with me and coached me in my study of God's word. He was and still is a great soldier Of the Lord. He is missed and the world is a little less bright since He is not Here. I will see His face again some day when He hears those words, Enter in Good and Faithful servant. Love you Charles.

He and his wife took me in as a friend and a brother in Christ when I first got saved. They would invite me to dinner on Sundays and displayed how a true Christian lives. They were living a life of Christ and I'll always be grateful for their love.
