Joy "Lori" Lorraine Mount

MAR 9, 1957 - OCT 25, 2014

Joy "Lori" Lorraine Mount was born March 9, 1957 in Tulsa, Oklahoma and passed away October 25, 2014 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma. Lori was the oldest of three children born to Joyce Crossland Ford and Arthur Gilmore. Lori attended Memorial High School and Bishop Kelley High School. After graduating high school Lori became a homemaker. She was most proud of the fact she was a mother and later became a grandmother. Lori cherished every moment she could spend with her family; and she especially loved taking family vacations and the weekends at the cabin. When she wasn't spending time with her family she loved camping, boating, OU football, listening to music and loving on her dogs. Lori had a fun loving and precious personality. She loved having a good time and always had a great personality. She was known for her free spirit and big heart. She was beautiful inside and out. Lori will be deeply missed by everyone who knew and loved her. Lori is preceded in passing by her father Art Gilmore. She is survived by her parents John and Joyce Crossland; daughter Angela Robinson; son Troy Robinson; daughter Stephanie Mount and her husband Shane; sister Lisa Crossland-Smith and her husband Joel; sister Iva Crossland-O-Shea; grandchildren Allison Porch, Alexander Porch, Dylan Robinson, Trevor Robinson; nieces and nephews Emily Smith, Taylor Smith, Molly Gilmore, Chloe Crossland and numerous other family members and friends. Memorial Service 10:00 A.M., Thursday, October 30, 2014 at Floral Haven Funeral Home Chapel Broken Arrow, OK
