Hey Mat...It hit me hard this year that you were gone. I wish I could've talked to you more since you left Ohio. The creative ways we showed each other friendship by mocking each other is such a huge part of my memory, but it was what made us best friends. There's so much that's happened since you left, I know we would have a lot to talk about. I feel bad I couldn't be there for you. Maybe it was your pride, or maybe I was too unapproachable...whatever the case is, I feel guilty. I'm sorry things turned out this way. I'm still sober, and you have been a big part of that. I don't know if I would've made it this far if it wasn't for you. I still think about our friendship everyday, the good times and the bad. I miss you and love you, brother. My condolences to the Brewster family and all of Mat's friends. Ryanps I would really like to talk to Susan. If you read this Susan, please call. My number is 440-521-6630

I met Mat about one year ago, he started coming to Claremore and taking meetings into the jail with me. I liked him from the start, he had no problem sharing what he thought. Last February I got to go to a conference in Memphis with Mat and some other guys. I have some very fun memories of that road trip. Mat and Candice came to my wedding last May and I really appreciated that it meant enough to him to come. A couple months ago I was talking to Mat on the phone and I told him I'd have to let him go when my wife got home because I needed to make an amends for an argument we had. He told me to go to her and hug her like the day I married her, and I did. I wish I could have had more time with him, he taught me a lot in the short time we knew each other, I'm grateful God saw fit to put him in my path. I will share Mats story with other men until the day I die, and use this experience as motivation to stay the course. My prayers are with his family, God Bless.

I Thank Mat for all his kind words and help, he may not know how much I respected and cared for him, he may not know how helpful he really was to me and I know he helped many others. I have many great memories of Mat. He was my closest friend and he helped me alot. I talked to him mostly every day for the last 3 years or so. I've had dinner a few times with him and Candice. I remember when he taught Gabriel how to ride a bike in the park by the school. We Also went to hillsong United concert a few months ago. He and Candice helped me through some difficult times. Matt and I went to the detox center several times to carry the message of recovery for those suffering from alcoholism. We traveled to Beaver Lake a couple times and had great times fishing he caught a couple really big striper. We fished for crappie in Chelsea and caught fish there too. Also caught fish at bird Creek in Catoosa. We also took a trip to Memphis TN, and Dallas TX for aa with a group of guys. We had a real fun Time in ft. Smith Ark we all went down to support Matt when he talked at a group. I'm really going to miss his laugh his smile and his company and mostly his place in my life was that of a brother. One really funny memory we had was when he built a firework he called a sparkler bomb he set it off in the backyard and it was really loud he loved fireworks. He will be missed by many.

Mat, it has been years since I have seen you. I've reconnected with your sister, Crissy, through Facebook. I spoke to your mother tonight. One thing I have gathered from discussions with your family is you were loved by many in life and you are equally loved in passing. You are with the Lord, safe and sound. There is no sorrow, pain, or tears in Heaven. The Lord's kingdom is filled with unspeakable love and an abundance of care. May you rest in peace, Mat.

My life is not over. I just started a new birth but I learned many things while here on earth. I learned to trust God and in all that you do he will forgive your sins because he never stops loving you. I learned to feel secure and never alone. I learned God has a place for me and it's my heavenly home. I had a destiny and it was to be free. One day I heard someone calling my name, Mat, it's time to come with me. It's time to come home, my child, for I am your Heavenly King. Enter my gates with praise and rejoice as my angels sing. Don't worry about your family for they will not be left in grief. Now, since you all know where I'm going, I won't say goodbye because we'll meet again. I'll just say, "See you in Heaven". To all my family and friends. Author Unknown
