I got the priviledge of knowing Margaret when I married into the Wright family, she was a wonderful woman, wife, and mother. She will be missed!

This lovely lady, I was so fortunate to know. She was a fierce Momma. When I was an adolescent I would call her phone, asking for for her youngest, son, Raymond. She was very distant on the phone, until I told her who it was. When she realized it it was me, from the "front road", she was fine. This Momma rocked! She didn't even know it! I love you Margaret.
